

Website Terms & Conditions

ENVIRO 3 PTY LTD (ACN 152 646 476)

Last updated: September 2026

1. About these Terms

These Website Terms & Conditions ("Terms") apply to your access to and use of the enviro3 website. The website is operated by ENVIRO 3 PTY LTD (ACN 152 646 476) ("enviro3", "we", "us" or "our").

By accessing or using this website, you agree to these Terms. If you do not agree, you should discontinue use of the website.

2. Website information

The information on this website is provided for general information about enviro3, our capabilities, services and projects. We endeavour to keep website information accurate and current; however, project requirements, products, construction methods, technical requirements, regulations and industry practices can change and may vary between sites.

Website content should not be treated as a project specification, quotation, contractual commitment or professional advice.

3. Technical and professional information

Information concerning fuel systems, tanks, civil works, drainage, environmental works, containment systems, remediation, testing, commissioning and related matters is general in nature. Site conditions and project requirements vary.

Nothing on this website constitutes engineering, environmental, regulatory, legal, safety, compliance or other professional advice. Where formal engineering, environmental consulting, design, testing, sampling, certification or other specialist professional services are required, those services may be provided by appropriately qualified independent contractors or consultants.

4. Quotations and project engagements

Submitting an enquiry, uploading documents or contacting enviro3 through this website does not create a contract for enviro3 to perform work.

Any work undertaken by enviro3 will be subject to the applicable quotation, scope of works, purchase order, contract or other written agreement between the relevant parties. Where there is an inconsistency between information on this website and a project-specific written agreement, the project-specific agreement will apply to the extent permitted by law.

5. Project images and examples

Photographs, case studies and project examples displayed on this website are provided to demonstrate previous work and general capability. Every project is different. Previous projects should not be interpreted as a representation that identical scope, methods, outcomes, costs or timeframes will apply to another project.

References to clients, sites, equipment, manufacturers or products do not necessarily imply endorsement, sponsorship or an ongoing commercial relationship.

6. Third-party products and services

enviro3 works with a range of suppliers, manufacturers, contractors, consultants and specialist service providers. References to third-party products, systems, brands or services are provided for informational purposes and do not necessarily constitute an endorsement or representation that a particular product or provider will be suitable for every project.

The appropriate products and services will depend on individual project requirements.

7. Intellectual property

Unless otherwise stated, website content created for enviro3, including text, graphics, branding, layouts and original project photographs, is owned by or licensed to enviro3 and is protected by applicable intellectual-property laws.

You may view and download website material for legitimate personal or business-reference purposes. You must not reproduce, modify, republish, distribute or commercially exploit our website content without prior written permission, except where permitted by law.

Third-party trademarks, logos, photographs and other intellectual property remain the property of their respective owners.

8. Documents submitted through the website

If you upload plans, specifications, photographs or other documents, you confirm that you are authorised to provide them to enviro3 for the purpose of your enquiry.

You permit enviro3 to use and, where reasonably necessary, share those documents with relevant personnel, contractors, consultants, suppliers or other service providers for purposes associated with assessing the enquiry, preparing a quotation or delivering the relevant project.

Our handling of personal information contained in those documents is subject to our Privacy Policy.

9. Website availability and security

We aim to maintain a reliable and secure website but cannot guarantee that the website will always be available, uninterrupted or free from errors, viruses or other harmful components.

You are responsible for maintaining appropriate security measures when accessing websites or downloading electronic material.

10. External links

Our website may contain links to third-party websites. These links are provided for convenience or additional information. Unless expressly stated otherwise, enviro3 does not control those websites and is not responsible for their content, availability, privacy practices or security.

11. Liability and statutory rights

To the maximum extent permitted by law, enviro3 is not liable for loss arising solely from reliance on general information contained on this website or from the unavailability or malfunction of the website.

Nothing in these Terms excludes, restricts or modifies any right, guarantee, warranty or remedy that cannot lawfully be excluded, restricted or modified, including any rights that may apply under the Australian Consumer Law.

12. Privacy

Personal information collected through this website is handled in accordance with our Privacy Policy. By submitting information through the website, you acknowledge that it may be handled for the purposes described in that policy.

13. Prohibited use

You must not use the website:

- for any unlawful, fraudulent or malicious purpose;
- to interfere with the operation, security or integrity of the website;
- to attempt to gain unauthorised access to any system, account or information;
- to transmit malicious code or harmful material; or
- in a way that infringes another person's intellectual-property, privacy or other legal rights.

14. Changes to these Terms

We may update these Terms from time to time. The current version will be published on our website with its most recent update date.

15. Governing law

These Terms are governed by the laws applicable in Victoria, Australia. Subject to any rights that cannot lawfully be excluded, the courts and tribunals of Victoria have jurisdiction in relation to disputes concerning these Terms or use of the website.
